LOCAL PRIORITY

Forthcoming quarterly priorities are:

- Anti Social Behaviour (ASB)
- Fatal 4 (Speeding, Seatbelts, Drink/Drug Drive, Mobile Phone)
- Drugs

These priorities will be reviewed again in early 2023.

COMMUNITY UPDATE

During November we have continued to focus on our quarterly, local priorities.

ASB- Patrols of our 'hot spot' problem areas in both Louth town and rural areas have continued in order to address ASB and under age drinking.

Fatal 4- We continue in our quest to make the roads of Lincolnshire safe. The Louth Roads Policing Unit have been conducting speed checks in and around Louth. Several motorists have been issued fixed penalty notices regarding traffic related offences.

Drugs - We have received several reports with regards to drug dealing in Louth. Drug dealing can be reported via Crimestoppers UK anonymously on 0800 555111 or via the website.

Other news-

Investigation - Following a serious incident in Holton-le-Clay the Neighbourhood Policing provided reassurance to the local community.

Engagement- PCSO Drake along with Platform Housing have been conducting engagement walkabouts in and around the Louth area.

Op Cauldron - As part of the run up to Bonfire night, the Louth Neighbourhood Policing Team conducted patrols around the Louth area and dealt with several minor incidents involving ASB.

School Engagement - DC Andy Spencer and PCSO Jo Drake attended North Thoresby Primary school and gave a talk about Internet Safety.

Any other business - The Louth NPT would like to wish you a Happy Christmas and New Year. Stay safe and we hope you enjoy a crime free festive period.
