80.20 – Cllr McNally (LCC & ELDC) - Report

Cllr McNally reported that there was little to report, there was a meeting the next night (9th). Covid-19 cases, at the moment in East Lindsey are very high. The roll out of the vaccine, in the future will be mainly to hospitals and care homes to start with, as well as G.P.'s if they can cope with the very low temperature required to store it (-70), it will keep for only 4 days in a normal refridgerator. At the moment there is a significant number of Covid cases being caught in hospital.
Call Connect has gone contactless for payment.

(Cllr McNally left meeting at 8.25 pm)
